

Joyce Hennessee Collection

Papers, 1970's-1980's
5 storage boxes

Accession #1524
OCLC #

Joyce Hennessee, a data administration specialist with Chrysler Corporation Management Information Systems, served as a student representative on the President's Commission on the Status of Women (COSW) while attending Wayne State University in the late sixties.

Her papers reflect her membership in various organizations, including COSW, concerned with issues of importance to women in the workplace and at home.

An audio tape, "Women in the Skilled Trades," has been transferred to the Archives Audiovisual Department.

Important subjects in the collection:

Affirmative Action
Child Care
Domestic Violence
Media and Women
Women's Rights
