

THE UAW RECREATION DEPARTMENT COLLECTION

Papers, 1944-1972

(predominantly, 1945-1950, 1968-1970)

6 linear feet

Accession Number 188
L. C. Number MS

The papers of the UAW Recreation Department were deposited with the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in 1963 and were opened for research in April of 1966. Additional papers were placed in the Archives in October of 1984 and were opened for research in May of 1986.

The UAW Department of Recreation originated as a program of the UAW Education Department which was created by a resolution at the 1935 Convention. Funds for Education and Recreational were separated at the 1939 Convention and by 1941 two separate departments had been established. Convention action in 1953 required all local unions to establish a Recreation Committee as a Standing Committee in the local union, but many locals had done so prior to this formal mandate.

In May, 1937, Melvin G. West became the first Director of the Department. Olga M. Madar became acting Director of the Department in late 1946, subsequently receiving official appointment to this position in 1947. Madar was elected to the UAW Executive Board in 1966 and in 1972 was elected a Vice-President of the Board.

The Recreation Department was known as the Department of Recreation and Leisure Time Activities by 1968 and by 1970 it was known as the Conservation and Resource Development and Recreation and Leisure Time Activities Department.

The papers in Part 1 of the UAW Recreation Department reflect the activities of this department in achieving desegregation of the American Bowling Congress, operating camps for the children of Union members and encouraging local union recreational programs in addition to correspondence of its Director, Olga M. Madar.

The papers in Part 2 include the records of a demonstration project, directed by Mary Williams, entitled: Deprived Areas Recreation Team (DART) which officially began in January, 1967. The purpose of this project was to unite various block and neighborhood groups in their efforts to seek more open space and more appropriate recreational facilities for those deprived areas of the inner city of Detroit. In addition, there are some items relating to conservation issues that were prepared by the Department for the 1972 Presidential campaign.

Series II
Deprived Areas Recreation Team (DART), 1960-1970
Boxes 3-12

Files relating to DART; its interaction with other groups and agencies.

This series is divided into the following four subseries:

Subseries A: DART Files, 1964-70, Boxes 3-4

Correspondence, proposals, memos, and other materials relating to DART and its general operation which was partially funded by the UAW. Particularly well-documented is the concept of and proposals for various Vest Pocket Parks in recreationally deprived areas. Files are arranged alphabetically by subject and then chronologically.

Subseries B: Other Agencies and Groups, 1965-70, Boxes 4-7

Correspondence, proposals, minutes, memos, and other materials relating to the interaction of DART and its personnel with other local agencies and groups including block clubs, recreation centers, and school/community studies. Of particular interest are the reports of participants of a Summer Institute concerning Social Welfare techniques held at Marygrove College regarding several Detroit agencies. Files are arranged alphabetically by subject and then chronologically.

Subseries C: City of Detroit, 1947-70, Boxes 7-11

Correspondence, proposals, memos, and other materials relating to the interaction of DART and other social service agencies and groups to city of Detroit departments, commissions, and committees. There is a good deal of information concerning the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation. Files are arranged alphabetically by subject and then chronologically.

Subseries D: State, Regional, and Federal Agencies, 1965-70, Boxes 11-12

Correspondence, proposals, minutes, and other materials relating to the interaction of DART and other social service organizations and groups to state, regional, and/or federal jurisdictional guidelines. There is a good deal of information concerning the State Recreation Bond Program/ Issue as well as Urban Beautification projects. Files are arranged alphabetically by subject and then chronologically.
