Papers, 1941-1985

29 linear feet
29 storage boxes

Accession # 735
OCLC #
DALNET #

UAW Region 2 was organized in 1939 with jurisdiction over locals in northeastern Ohio and northwestern Pennsylvania. By the late sixties, Region 2 had 70,000 members, nearly 50,000 of whom were in the Cleveland area, site of the regional headquarters.

The records of UAW Region 2 consist of correspondence, minutes, clippings, newsletters, reports, financial records, wage data, grievances, and contracts. Most of the files pertain to the relations between UAW locals and companies in the region; a few relate to civic and labor programs in the Cleveland area.

Important subjects in the collection:

Cleveland Organized Labor
Community Action Programs
Employment Discrimination
Ford Motor Company Plants
Harris-Seybold Company
Kohler Strike
Midland Steel
Ohio Organized Labor
Ohio Right-to-Work Campaign
UAW Locals 32, 70, 161, 217, 463, 486, 725, 1250, 1260
Weatherhead Company
White Motor Company

Important correspondents in the collection:

Ken Bannon
Bill Casstevens
Dan Forchione
Douglas Fraser
Pat O'Malley

Non-manuscript material:

A number of local union newspapers and contracts have been placed in the Archives Library.
