

HORACE W. GILMORE COLLECTION

Papers, 1957 - 1969

8 linear feet

Acc. #549

The papers of Horace W. Gilmore were placed in the Archives of Labor History & Urban Affairs in April 1972 by Judge H. W. Gilmore.

Horace W. Gilmore was born in Circleville, Ohio in 1918. After his early education in Ohio, he entered the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, subsequently earning a law degree in 1942. After a combination of private and public legal practice, Mr. Gilmore was appointed to the bench by Governor G. Mennen Williams at the end of 1956 and has since served in that position.

In addition to his work in the 3rd Judicial Circuit, Judge Gilmore has served as Chairman of the Committee to Revise the Criminal Code. He helped organize and lead Michigan's Commission on Crime, Delinquency, and Criminal Administration and also was involved in the Constitutional Convention, numerous Police Training Conferences and other judicial conferences.

Additionally Judge Gilmore has been actively involved in community affairs, serving on the Citizens Committee for Equal Opportunity being chairman of the Police-Community Relations Sub-Committee. He also served on the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council as well as participating in the Episcopal Society for Cultural & Racial Unity.

The papers of Horace W. Gilmore reflect his work on the Circuit Court bench and his involvement in judicial and community affairs.

Important subjects covered in the collection are:

- Equal Employment Opportunity
- Juvenile Delinquency
- Negro-Police Relations
- Police Department
- Racism
- Summer Programs
